This is the first recapture of a Barramundi tagged in Lake Monduran and recaptured after going over the dam wall when it overflowed in 2011. At the time there were reports of many dead fish at the base of the dam wall.

In 2011 the ability to store photos or videos of tagged and recaptured fish was added to the database. Many photos have been added but this is the first video image to be included. Thanks to Stephen Polzin for making the video of T62868 caught in Trinity Inlet available.
